Solution:

2. Now write a summary (6-10 sentences) telling me about what you have read.

TEXT:

VOCABULARY

W.A.L.T.: expand our vocabulary knowledge

1. Find and choose 4-6 interesting words you are not familiar with.
2. Write down each word in your book and underneath it, write what you think it means, then write the dictionary's definition.

Example:

Disaster

I think it means something horrible has happened.

Dictionary: A sudden accident or natural catastrophe that causes great danger.

What Do I Think?

W.A.L.T.: make connections to what we read.

Write a letter to the author telling them (Choose 1):

What you enjoyed about their story

What you didn't enjoy about their story

What you would change in the story.

What you found interesting

How your life connects to the story (characters, setting, etc)

How the text is like something else you have read.

WEEK:

Visualise

W.A.L.T.: make a picture in our heads about what we are reading.

Pick a part of the story you have read that you enjoyed. Draw a picture of what you saw in your head. Give your picture a caption.
